GOOD LUCK CHUCK

Rock, Rock 'n Roll Poet.
So damn good, almost a crime.
He's the king of rhythm and rhyme.

Maybellene, Sweet little sixteen.
Beautiful Delilah, Nadine.
Bye bye Johnny, You never can tell.
Johnny B. Goode, Ring ring goes the bell.
Roll over Beethoven, Joe Joe Gunne.
I'm a rocker, Run Rudolph Run.
Carol, Memphis Tennessee.
Reelin' and Rockin', It wasn't me.

Good, good, good luck Chuck.
Gotta stop running, cause you're running out of luck.
Good, good, good luck Chuck.
Better start walking, walking like a duck.

Hail, hail rock 'n roll.
Around and Around, Oh Baby doll.
The man and the donkey, Downbound train.
Rock 'n roll music, Tulane.
You can't catch me, Come on.
Little queenie, Got it and gone.
Rocking on the railroad, All aboard.
Thirty days, My Mustang Ford.

Rock, Rock 'n Roll Poet.
Hear it, taste it, feel the fun.
Spits out words, just like a machinegun.

No particular place to go.
Promised land, Go Go Go.
Too much monkey business.
Wee Wee hours, Back to Memphis.
The Jaguar and the Thunderbird.
All those songs you must have heard.
Put on your rocking shoes.
You need a shot of Rhythm and Blues.
