

FROM THE NEW BINTANGS ALBUM 'DOC'

Music: Frank Kraaijeveld. Lyrics: Frank Kraaijeveld

I JUST STOP BREATHING

Just to see the sight of you Still takes my breath away
You make me speechless, deaf and dumb
I run out of words to say
If something should happen
If something went wrong
If something got out of controle
You know what I'll do
You know what I'll do, babe

I just stop breathing
Let it slip away
I just stop breathing
Let it all, let it all slip away
Let it all, let it all slip away

Through all the storms you stood right by me Everything I did, I did because of you Like a soulteam steaming up a wild and mighty river
We loved, enjoyed it all the way through
If something should happen
If something went wrong
If something got out of controle
You know what I'll do
You know what I'll do, babe

Tossing and turning and kissing and learning and cheating and lying and telling, denying and hoping and praying and leaving and staying and laughing and crying and living and dying
We did it all
